

Academic Assessment

Program Learning Outcomes

Division	Social Behavioral Sciences and Public Services
Program	Addiction Counseling
Degree/Certificate	AAS
Program Learning Outcomes	Students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Define the theories, skills, and attitudes associated with the core functions of a substance use disorder counselor (addiction counselor).2. Describe the transdisciplinary foundations and competencies required of the addiction counselor.3. Define professional and ethical behaviors necessary to work with clients, colleagues, the public, as well as other community and healthcare professionals.4. Define appropriate professional and ethical behavior for substance abuse counselors.5. Summarize the basic substance use disorder (addiction) counseling skills.6. Analyze the skills and attitudes needed to be a professional addiction counselor.

Submitted 1/21/2020