

Academic Assessment

Program Learning Outcomes

Division	Social and Behavioral Sciences & Public Services
Program	Early Childhood Education and Development
Degree/Certificate	Associate of Applied Science
Program Learning Outcomes	Students will be able to: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Describe and demonstrate the practices necessary to provide a safe, healthy learning environment for young children. 2. Evaluate the physical, intellectual, social and emotional development of the child to implement a developmentally appropriate program. 3. Describe the principles of child development and learning as it relates to their own professional philosophy of the education of young children. 4. Describe and demonstrate effective program management including positive interactions with children and families. 5. Design and implement a developmentally appropriate curriculum including all developmental domains enhancing the child's creativity and language development. 6. Explain relationship building techniques and their importance for connecting with community and professional partners.

Submitted 1/21/2020