

TEC Middle School Career Awareness Event

KCKCC was happy to host students from Rosedale Middle School in the KCK School District for the TEC Middle School Career Awareness Event Oct. 16. During the event, students had the opportunity to learn, through hands-on demonstrations, about a variety of programs TEC offers including welding, cosmetology, auto technology, health professions and many more. Most of the demonstrations were led by TEC students!

KCKCC Hosts Craft Fair for Student Scholarships

The KCKCC Admissions Department would like to thank everyone who supported the first KCKCC Concurrent and Dual Scholarship Craft Fair, which was held Oct. 13 in Upper Jewell.

Through the event, KCKCC raised approximately $1,950 from booth and ticket sales as well as concessions. There were 37 vendors who hosted a booth at the fair, including some very talented and crafty KCKCC staff and faculty. This was a great step forward to building funds for scholarships for concurrent and dual high school students. A spring KCKCC Concurrent/Dual Scholarship Craft Fair is currently in the planning stages, so watch for more information coming soon.

There were a few people who helped make this event successful:

- Buildings and Grounds
- Campus Police
- Dr. Stacy Tucker and Phi Theta Kappa
- Admissions: Mary Kobe, Brooke Fleener and Lindsey Bruns
- Student Activities and Student Senate
- Staff, Faculty and community members who donated items for the drawings
- KCKCC Staff and faculty for hosting a booth
- All of the staff and faculty who attended the event to shop and see the vendors

KCKCC Program Spotlight

KCKCC is pleased to welcome our October new hires. Welcome to the Blue Devil family and good luck in your new positions!

KCKCC's Shawn Derritt and Tami Bartunek joined the live audience at the National WWI Memorial in Kansas City Oct. 11 to see NBC Nightly News anchor Lester Holt's broadcast. Holt was in Kansas City as part of his 5 Cities in 5 Days event.

Blue Devils Blank Allen; Home Soccer Finale Sunday

KCKCC dominated from start to finish in a 3-0 home soccer blanking of Allen County Tuesday.

The win moved the Blue Devils (4-4-1) to within a half-game of Johnson County (4-3-1) in the race for third place in the Jayhawk East Conference. KCKCC closes out regular season play at home Sunday, hosting Coffeyville (1-7) at 7:30 p.m. while JCCC plays at Coffeyville Thursday and hosts second place Neosho County (6-3) Saturday. Should KCKCC and JCCC tie, the Blue Devils have the edge because of a 3-1 win over JCCC early in the season. The two teams tied in their second meeting.

Sophomore midfielder Reed Axthelm gave KCKCC a 1-0 lead just 22 minutes into the clash with Allen County. The goal came on an assist from freshman Alejandro Maillert. Eight minutes later, sophomore Ethan Pfeifer made it 2-0 on an unassisted goal. Maillert then closed out the scoring with an assist from Alvaro Garrigos with 10 minutes remaining.

KCKCC peppered the Red Devils' goal with 24 shots including 12 on goal. Allen County, meanwhile, managed just five shots - none in the first half - as freshman goalkeeper Fabian Keiblinger turned away the only two shots on goal for his third shutout of the season.

Entrepreneurship & Workforce Center

The staff in KCKCC's Entrepreneurship & Workforce Center have been hard at work this fall representing the college out in the community and helping students find what career is best for them. The center makes lives better by providing services that enhance, support and produce success within you, the community and beyond! Check out some of the activities this month!

Fairfax Festival

The entrepreneur and workforce center supported the Fairfax Festival again this year, and it was an even bigger success than last year.

An entrepreneur in the program who has recently manufactured his own barbecue sauce and rub is quickly becoming a local favorite. Clayton Wells, owner of The Kansas City Barbecue Bistro, wowed the crowd as a vendor at the festival and as a result was asked to partner with Cintas to prepare 160 steaks for a company event.

Upcoming

KU Visit Equally impressive was a tour during the American Technical Education Association (ATEA) Region 5 Conference to the University of Kansas Medical Center where the center collaborated on ideas for potential pathways for our students. From conversations over cadavers with doctors in bio mechanics at KU to being in the "Man Trap" room at the cyber security office, it was an inspiring day to remember.

The Entrepreneurship & Workforce Center has an upcoming event - "The Leadership Gold Morning Series." It will be from 8 to 9 a.m. Oct. 23 in M118 at the Dr. Thomas R. Burke Technical Education Center. The event will feature leadership lessons from John Maxwell's best selling book as well as Mary Ricketts. Cost for the event is $20.

Plan Now to Attend KCKCC's Strategic Plan Sessions

KCKCC is hosting a series of public forums this year as the college begins its Strategic Plan development process.

Strategic planning is a process higher education institutions and other businesses use to set long term goals and priorities. It is a way to focus on where resources and funding should be used to ensure long term success for the college. Many times, the mission and vision statements are also included in this process so that they align with the strategic plan as well. Strategic plans are revisited every few years to ensure goals and objectives are current.

Student and community forums will be held on Oct. 25 in Upper Jewell on the KCKCC Main Campus, 7250 State Ave. These will be at 7:30 a.m., 1 p.m. and 6 p.m. Each of these sessions are open to everyone in the campus community as well as in Wyandotte and Leavenworth counties. The purpose of these forums is to get input on the college's strategic priorities.

An additional set of student and community forums will be held on Nov. 1 in Multipurpose Room 2 at the Dr. Thomas R. Burke Technical Education Center, 6565 State Ave. These will be at 7:30 a.m., 1 p.m. and 6 p.m.

Throughout the 2018-19 academic year, there will be additional forums as KCKCC continues through with the Strategic Development Plan process. For more information, contact Michael Beach, KCKCC's Chief Financial Officer at 913-288-7645 or by email at mbeach@kckcc.edu.
