

ATEA Conference

KCKCC was pleased to welcome Kansas Gov. Jeff Colyer and KCK Mayor David Alvey to the opening session of the American Technical Education Association Region 5 Conference at KCKCC-TEC Thursday morning.

The ATEA is an international association that focuses on the quality of post-secondary technical education with an emphasis in professional development for technical educators. In addition, it is a driving force behind workforce development. Attendees to the conference have an opportunity to select from a variety of breakout sessions as well as touring local business and manufacturing in the area!

Still time to Donate to the KCKCC Family Fund

Foundation's Family Fund gathered Setp. 28 for a Family Picture!

The KCKCC Family Fund is an annual giving campaign the foundation provides for all employees to have the opportunity to give in a gratifying and simple way to support student scholarships. Your contribution - no matter how big or small - says you want to help our students achieve their goals.

You can donate through payroll deduction or as a one-time gift.

If you choose payroll deduction, it must be a minimum $5 donation per pay period. Forms can be mailed to Sharon Clay at sclay@kckcc.edu or dropped off in the Foundation Office, Room 3500.

For more information or to complete the Family Fund enrollment form, visit <http://files.constantcontact.com/9a8d92a1301/4a7efb8f-2eeb-4c1e-a226-fa0190d0f417.pdf>.

---

Two Late Goals Let Neosho Nip Blue Devils

Neosho County scored twice in the final six minutes Tuesday to rally to a 3-1 Jayhawk Conference soccer win over KCKCC in Chanute.

The loss dropped the Blue Devil men to 3-3 heading into a big home showdown with Jayhawk Conference leader Cowley College Friday evening. The kickoff will follow a women's clash starting at 4:30 p.m.

KCKCC led 1-0 at halftime at Neosho County thanks to a goal by Reed Axthelm on an assist from Kenar Huntington at the 27:00 mark.

But Neosho tied it nine minutes into the second half on a goal by Paolo Richa assisted by Jakovljevic and then broke the tie with six minutes remaining on a goal by Renan Santos assisted by Alfie Belcher. The Panthers added their final goal with two minutes left on an unassisted kick by Alexandre Novas. Neosho goalkeeper Hugo Blanckaert had seven saves as the Blue Devils got off 12 shots. Fabian Keiblinger turned away three shots in goal for KCKCC.

Neosho Women Rally Twice to Beat KCKCC

Statistically, only Jayhawk Conference leader Butler County has given up fewer goals per game than KCKCC's women's soccer team.

Unfortunately, the Lady Blue Devils have not been able to match those statistics offensively. Limited to just five goals in their first seven games, the Blue Devils scored twice at Neosho County Tuesday only to have the Lady Panthers come from behind twice for a 3-2 win.

The loss left KCKCC 2-4-2 heading into a home re-match with Cowley College Friday at 4:30 p.m. with a men's game to follow. KCKCC and Cowley battled to a 0-0 deadlock in their first clash.

KCKCC jumped off to a 1-0 lead in the first 90 seconds at Neosho, freshman Cristina Alvarez scoring the goal on a penalty kick. Neosho tied the game 1-1 on a DaNisha Brown goal assisted by Jailene Alarcom at the 14:00 mark but the Blue Devils quickly went back ahead.

KCKCC Program Spotlight

KCKCC was proud to help the United Way of Wyandotte County kickoff its annual fundraising campaign Oct. 2 at Children's Mercy Park. Annual workplace campaigns, grants and other revenue sources support more than 50 programs provided by United Way as well as its 34 partner agencies.

Awesome weather meant a fantastic week in the Building Engineering and Maintenance Technology program! Deck and wood bridge building for main campus starts next week. We will continue to build our future!!

Support the KCKCC Foundation with Chiefs Football

The Kansas City Chiefs are having an amazing start to their season! Why not enjoy a Chiefs football game in person and help the KCKCC Foundation at the same time.

The KCKCC Foundation has partnered with the Chiefs organization to offer discounted tickets to five games this season. Tickets are $33.50 and $10 of each ticket will be donated to the foundation to be used toward student scholarships.

Games that remain are:

- Nov. 11 - Cardinals vs. Chiefs, noon

Click here to purchase Kansas City Chiefs tickets go to the Ticket Fundraiser website. Be sure to enter code KCKCCEF!

Labette Rallies Past Lady Blue Devils

A fast start wasn't enough for KCKCC to get past Labette in Jayhawk Conference volleyball play in Parsons Wednesday night.

The Lady Blue Devils surged to a 25-8 opening set win only to have the Lady Cardinals rally for 25-19, 26-24 and 25-13 wins.

The loss dropped the Blue Devils to 13-9 overall and 2-5 in conference play heading into the Ramada Classic in Columbus, Neb., Friday and Saturday. KCKCC will play North Platte at 4 p.m. and Bismarck State at 6 p.m. Friday and Northeast at 10 a.m. and Central Nebraska at 2 p.m. on Saturday.

The Blue Devils then return home to host Fort Scott next Wednesday and conclude their home season Wednesday, Oct. 17, against Highland.

---

Former Instructor Honored in Scholarship Fundraiser

Plans for the eighth annual Philip Miller Memorial Scholarship Reading are underway. The reading honors Phil Miller, a former Kansas City Kansas Community College faculty member known for his love of poetry and for promoting literary writing through readings.

Phil Miller taught English composition and literature at KCKCC as well as creative writing and learning center courses from 1976 until he retired in 2002. He also co-created the Riverfront Reading Series in the mid-1980s, which still continues and is now sponsored by a committee of 13, led by poet Phyllis Becker. The reading series highlights poetry and fiction readings and are held on the second Friday of each month. For more information about the series, visit www.riverfrontreadings.com.

This year's memorial scholarship reading is at 3 p.m. Oct. 21 at the Writer's Place, 3607 Pennsylvania Ave. in Kansas City, Mo. The reading will be an open mic with the theme of "Ghosts." Participants will have the opportunity to read two poems or one long poem or can choose to read a poem of Miller's, who was an accomplished and well-published poet.

Along with the reading event, there will be a silent auction and refreshments. Donations collected will go toward the Philip Miller Scholarship fund at KCKCC. The $500 scholarship will be awarded to at least one KCKCC student each year.

If interested in participating in the Philip Miller Memorial Scholarship Reading, please send an email to Randy Ratliff at randy@riverfront.com. Readers can also register the day of the event.

If unable to attend the scholarship reading event, donations to the Philip Miller Scholarship Fund can be mailed to Kansas City Kansas Community College Foundation, Attn: Deborah Cowick, 7250 State Ave., Room 3500, Kansas City, Kan. 66112. Checks should be made payable to the KCKCC Foundation. Please write "Philip Miller Scholarship" in the Notes section. Contact Cowick at 913-288-7369 to donate by credit card.

---

Blue Devil Golfers 6th in Difficult Porto Cima Tourney

The Club at Porto Cima proved as tough as advertised in the 2018 Porto Cima Invitational at the Lake of the Ozarks in Sunrise Beach Tuesday.

Without a player in the 70s, KCKCC had to settle for sixth place in competition with a field of four-year colleges and universities.

But the Blue Devils weren't alone. Co-medalist Zach Chegwidan of William Penn was the only golfer to match par with a 72 in the two-day tourney. Only one other golfer broke 75 Tuesday and just a dozen broke 80.

Missouri Valley took team honors despite finishing a whopping 34 strokes over par with a four-man total of 610. William Penn was second (623) followed by Culver-Stockton (630), Seminole State College (647), Baker (660), KCKCC (661) and Evangel (671).

Two freshmen led KCKCC. Garrett Clark finished in a tie for eighth (75-81-156) and Cameron Riley tied for 18th (84-80-164). Sophomore Zach Miller tied for 30th (85-87-172); freshman Garrett Scott was alone in 33rd (83-90-173); and sophomore Evin Wheeler tied for 34th (89-86-175).

Chegwidden (77-72-149) shared medalist honors with Nicholas Evangelio (74-75-149) of Missouri Valley.

---

Food. Clothing. Art. Jewlery.
Saturday, October 13
9AM - 2PM

7250 State Avenue Kansas City, Kansas

---

Connect with us

---

