Two KCK Natives Honored at Women's Equality Day Event

KCKCC celebrated Women's Equality Day Aug. 23 where two KCK icons were recognized - former KCK Mayor and lifelong educator Carol Marinovich and Kansas State Rep. Kathy Wolfe Moore.

Women's Equality Day commemorates the granting of women the right to vote in the United States. First proposed in 1878, women known as suffragettes worked peacefully for more than 70 years to gain equal voting rights. Some would try to pass suffrage acts in individual states. Others organized parades, vigils or even hunger strikes. After President Woodrow Wilson changed his position and started supporting a woman's right to vote, other politicians soon followed his lead. On Aug. 26, 1920, the 19th Amendment to the United States Constitution was certified as law, and since 1972, every president has issued a proclamation for Women's Equality Day.

KCKCC's Women's Equality Day event was co-hosted by Women & Gender Advocacy, the Counseling & Advocacy Center, the American Association of University Women, the AAUW Student Chapter and the Intercultural Center.

Farmer's Market Returns to KCKCC

The KCK Farmer's Market is available on the Main Campus from 7 a.m. to 1 p.m. (or until sellout) every Thursday through the fall.

Enjoy this nutritious, reasonably priced, local and organic food market. These farmer vendors use organic practices, but because of the small size of their farms, have not gone through the full organic certification process because it can be expensive for a small business.

Vendors accept cash, debit, SNAP and Kansas Senior Farmer's Market Nutrition vouchers. It is located in the southwest parking lot on Main Campus under the oak trees at Campus Boulevard and Argentine Lane. Visit the KCK Farmer's Market website for more info!

Learn Self-Defense with Dr. Mosier

Interested in learning self-defense techniques? Then you will want to make plans to attend a new weekly opportunity KCKCC is offering where you can learn self-defense through a class with KCKCC President Dr. Greg Mosier.

The classes will be from 5 to 6 p.m. Thursdays Sept. 12 to Nov. 14 in Upper Jewell. The courses are free and all faculty and staff are welcome.

Demanding Schedule Foils KCKCC Volleyball in Oklahoma

Not only can KCKCC boast one of the toughest volleyball schedules in NJCAA Division II, the Blue Devils take on the nation's most demanding opening schedule.

Off to a 3-1 start in western Illinois last weekend that included upsets of No. 4 Parkland and No. 17 Illinois Central, the Blue Devils played in Miami, Okla., Monday where they dropped a 3-1 decision to Southeastern Oklahoma A&M.

And now it's back to the shores of the Mississippi River in West Burlington, Iowa, Friday and Saturday for four matches in the Southeastern Community College Invitational. KCKCC will take on North Iowa Area and Hawkeye community colleges Friday at 4 and 6 p.m. and then meet St. Ambrose at 8 a.m. and host Southeastern at 10 a.m. on Saturday.

On the road at Cloud County Sept. 4 and Coffeyville Sept. 9, KCKCC finally returns for its home opener against Johnson County Wednesday, Sept. 11.

The Blue Devils opened with a 25-17 win at Southeastern Oklahoma Monday only to wear down, losing the next three sets 25-21, 21-18, 25-9.

Freshman Cassidy Crist of DeSoto led offensively with 11 kills while Wichita Northwest Tara Mattingly had 10 with 14 digs. Sophomores Malaysia StClair of Beaumont, Tex., added five kills and Gracie Golay of Wichita Trinity Academy and Holton's Lauren Leavendusky four each. Golay also had 26 assists and 11 digs. Sophomore Natalia Vega Apointe of Bayamon, Puerto Rico, again led in digs with 19.

KCKCC Spotlight

KCKCC was happy to attend the KCK Women's Chamber scholarship luncheon Aug. 26. KCK Mayor David Alvey provided the key note address. Congratulations to all of the women who received scholarships to continue their education!

KCKCC's Student Veterans Association chapter held its first meeting of the new academic year. SVA is open to all students, not just military-affiliated students, so stop by the Veterans Center for more info!

Unbeaten Crowder Rallies Past Blue Devils 4-2

Unbeaten Crowder rallied in the second half to hand KCKCC its first soccer loss of the season 4-2 Wednesday night.

The loss dropped the Blue Devils to 0-1-1 heading into a home clash Sunday with Iowa Central at 2 p.m. The game will follow a noon kickoff between KCKCC and Iowa Central's women's teams.

KCKCC held a 2-1 halftime lead against Crowder only to have the Roughriders (2-0) take advantage of two fouls to tie the game and then go ahead. The go ahead goal came on a free kick that was deflected once or twice crossing the goal.

Crowder took a 1-0 lead 14 minutes into the game but sophomore Leonardo Bonelli took a pass from Marcos Cabral and drove a kick behind goalkeeper Anthony Garcia while falling to the turf for the tying goal with 28 minutes into the half. Three minutes later, sophomore Marcus Kawah rifled a go-ahead goal past Garcia from 20 yards out. The spectacular goal came on an assist from freshman Javier Blanco.

Freshman goalkeeper Bosco Pery was credited with three saves on shots on goal while Garcia had two for the Roughriders, who controlled the contest much of the way.

Huwaldt to Coordinate Athletic Compliance, Eligibility

For five years, Kinsey Huwaldt worked with KCKCC athletes as an athletic trainer.

Now she'll be working with KCKCC coaches and athletes as Coordinator of Compliance and Eligibility. Huwaldt succeeds Debi Baker, who retired July 1 after 27 years as athletic secretary.

Huwaldt said the new position will allow her to expand her administrative skills while continuing to remain in athletics. She left her position as athletic trainer in late June to travel with her husband, Chris Huwaldt, while continuing her work as a trainer on a part-time basis. The couple married Oct. 14, 2017, and reside in Overland Park.

A graduate of Texas Tech University in Lubbock with a bachelor of science in exercise and sports sciences in 2012, Huwaldt earned a master's in athletic training at Texas Tech Health Sciences Center in the spring of 2014. While at Texas Tech she worked as a Graduate Assistant Huwaldt is a Certified Athletic Trainer by the National Athletic Trainers Association. Since joining the KCKCC staff in 2014, she has completed a wide variety of Lower Certified, Fascial Manipulation Level 1A&B, Graston Level 1 Provider, 3DMAPPS Certification and is an American Association of Sports Dieticians and Nutritionist - Nutrition Specialist.

KCKCC Launches 100 Stories of Impact Campaign

As KCKCC plans for our centennial in 2023, we are collecting stories of IMPACT. We know that KCKCC has a great impact, and the personal 100 stories shared by alums, faculty, staff and community members will help tell our story.

Videos will be posted monthly, so if you have a story to share contact Kelly Rogge at krogge@kckcc.edu for more information.

KCKCC Annual Non-Discrimination Notice

Kansas City Kansas Community College Statements on Non-Discrimination, Harassment and Violence, and Educational Equality

Non-Discrimination Policy Statement

Kansas City Kansas Community College (KCKCC) is committed to promoting and sustaining a campus community which identifies and values the individuality of every community member and is dedicated to maintaining a positive environment where diversity and inclusion is encouraged and fostered throughout the College.

KCKCC prohibits discrimination against any member of the College community on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, age, disability, sex/gender (to include orientation, identity or expression), military/veteran status or any other characteristic protected by law and/or KCKCC policies. KCKCC will conduct its programs, services and activities consistent with applicable federal, state and local laws.

The Division of Career and Technical Education meets the changing educational and technological workforce development needs of the community by providing adult education and technical training to support the economic and well-being of the community and businesses within the college service area. Vocational opportunities will be offered regardless of race, color, national origin, sex or disability. We minimize barriers to educational opportunities and enhance the intellectual and technical skills of area residents by providing adult training, general academic and technical education, customized business and industry training, and economic development services that prepare students and trainees for rewarding employment. Entry to the Technical Education programs vary depending on the program and credentialing requirements through designated accrediting bodies. All programs require students to go through the application and acceptance process as set forth by Enrollment Management. Several of the programs require students to take the Accuplacer test in order to meet minimum requirements to be successful in the program and industry. These requirements can be found on the link below.

Credit instruction is offered in a large selection of different programs using industry driven instruction, industry-standard equipment, and industry recognized credentials and work-based learning. A full listing of departments, degrees, and certificates can be found here: <https://www.kckcc.edu/academics/divisions/technology-workforce-development/index.html>

The individuals designated to coordinate compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 are identified in the nondiscrimination notice below. Students that have concerns of discrimination not covered under Title IX should direct those concerns to Dr. Shawn Derritt, Dean of Student Services, 913-288-7437.

Harassment and Violence Statement

Kansas City Kansas Community College is committed to providing a non-discriminatory and harassment-free educational, living and working environment for all members of the campus community, including students, faculty, administrators, staff, trustees or visitors. This policy prohibits all forms of sexual or gender-based harassment and sexual assault.

Title IX, regulated by the Office of Civil Rights, prohibits discrimination on the basis of sex in federally funded education programs and activities. All schools who receive any federal financial assistance must comply with Title IX.

KCKCC encourages the prompt reporting of any incident of sexual or gender-based misconduct to the College Title IX Coordinator: Barbara Clark-Evans, Director of the Intercultural Center, bclark@kckcc.edu or 913-288-7504, 7250 State Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas 66112 or the Deputy Title IX Coordinator: Sean Burkett, Employee Relations Business Partner, sburkett@kckcc.edu or 913-288-7269, 7250 State Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas 66112.

Educational Equality Statement

Kansas City Kansas Community College is committed to a policy of educational equity. Accordingly, the College admits students, grants financial aid and scholarships, and conducts all educational programs, activities, and employment without regard to race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, age, sexual orientation, gender identity, marital status, ancestry, veteran status, or disabilities.

Any person having inquiries concerning College compliance with regulations Implementing Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, or the American with Disabilities Act of 1990, is directed to contact Human Resources, Kansas City Kansas Community College, 7250 State Avenue, Kansas City, Kansas 66112, kckcchr@kckcc.edu or 913-288-7200.

Any person needing access to academic programs or college activities due to a documented disability is directed to contact the Student Accessibility and Support Services, 913-288-7664 for accommodations.
