Your Degree Option

Kansas City Kansas Community College offers an Associate in Arts degree, which leads into the K-State bachelor's degree in Interdisciplinary Social Science through distance education. This degree completion program is designed primarily for students who have completed the equivalent of the first two years of college. Applications for admission to this program are accepted through the Bachelor's Degree Completion Program in the Division of Continuing Education.

Your Career

Kansas State University's social science graduates find jobs across the entire spectrum of private, public, and governmental positions. Some jobs held by social science alumni include: Loan Processor, Manager/Assistant Manager, Administrative Assistant, Research Investigator, Case Manager, and many more. The social science degree prepares graduates for the workforce by developing research skills, communication skills, critical thinking, and team project experience.

Get Started

The degree map on the reverse page will show you a listing of classes you need to take from Kansas City Kansas Community College and K-State to complete the Liberal Arts and Sciences–Sociology and Interdisciplinary Social Science 2+2. This degree map has been reviewed and accepted by both schools as an illustration, which is subject to change. Many other combinations of courses may be possible, so students should contact a K-State representative or their community college advisor before committing to a particular transfer program.
