Your Degree Option

The Family Studies and Human Services degree is focused at the undergraduate level on the study of individuals and families from a multidisciplinary perspective. Studies emphasize developmental processes throughout the life cycle, interpersonal relationships, personal financial planning, and educational programming for children and families. The degree prepares you for a career working with people— young and old; men and women; children, teenagers, and adults.

Your Career

Graduates in Family Studies and Human Services are respected for their excellent educational background in the human sciences, including the experience they have gained through community service and field experiences. Many go directly to professional positions in youth and adult service agencies, health care organizations, college financial aid offices, state and federal social service departments, financial counseling centers, and many other businesses and organizations. Others attend graduate school. They make a difference in people's lives by helping them live happier, healthier, and more productive lives.

Get Started

The degree map on the reverse page will show you a listing of classes you need to take from Kansas City Kansas Community College and K-State to complete the Family Studies and Human Services 2+2. This degree map has been reviewed and accepted by both schools as an illustration, which is subject to change. Many other combinations of courses may be possible, so students should contact a K-State representative or their community college advisor before committing to a particular transfer program.

To get started, contact the K-State 2+2 representative by calling 620-786-1188 or e-mail jdunn@k-state.edu.
